Eligibility note: Competitors must be licensed USSA masters competitors to be eligible for the overall regional class champion award. The standard eligibility rule for the regional champions team that members must be from a Western region division is revised for the special case when the regional championship is held as a joint event with the FIS Masters Cup event hosted in the US and joint awards will be made to the both the top-ranked Eastern and Western division finishers when the class winner is a Eastern division competitor.

In M06, top finisher Kjetil Fladmark Larsen (NOR) and 2(t) finisher Rolando Galli (ITA) were not eligible for the Western Region champion award, which went to top US finisher 2(t) Tim Hill (PNSA). In M05, Mauro Lapucci (ITA) was not eligible for the Western Region champion award, which went to runnerup Scott Strickland (RM).

There were no ties in the overall combined standings for regional champion in the men's classes at the 2015 Western Region Championships.
